

In the Guidance Note to Information Officers dated 21 April 2021 the Information Regulator in Paragraph 5.2 stated as follows:

5.3 Each subsidiary of a group of companies must register its Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer(s) with the Regulator.

This means that in a group of companies (including groups acting as such i.e. marketers acting under the auspice of a famous brand; motor vehicle resellers acting under a famous brand etc.) must register their individual businesses.
